Q: What specifically drew you to Ryan Mallett? Q: You said you enjoyed your conversation with Ryan Mallett. Is that in regard to his football knowledge or his personality? BB: We just felt like he was a good player. He's had a lot of production. He's won everywhere he's been: high school, air force football jersey, college. He did a good job at Michigan. They came in and changed offenses and that was definitely beyond his control. I think he's been a successful, productive quarterback all the way through his career: high school, nfl personalized jersey, college. He's an impressive guy to talk to. Q: What did you think of his arm strength? Bill Belichick and Ryan Mallett seem to be an odd coupling. Belichick isn't one to draft quarterbacks in the early rounds. Mallett was taken at No. 74, nike nfl 2012 uniforms, in the third round, nike and nfl, the highest quarterback selection in the Belichick era. (Kevin O'Connell was chosen with the 94th pick in 2008). And Mallett is an off-the-field enigma whose character concerns would seem to be unappealing to the no-nonsense Belichick. Q: Bill Belichick said you are a film and football junkie and a son of a coach much like he is. Can you talk to us about how your meeting with coach Belichick went? Did Belichick make the right call with this pick? BB: Very good. I don't think that's any issue at all. He played a very good offense with Coach Petrino at Arkansas and they do a lot of pro-style type things, so I think he handled that very well as far as throws, personalized football jerseys, womens football jerseys, accuracy, mechanics, ncaa jersey, all the mental stuff – making changes, hockey jerseys for sale, adjustments, protections, football jersey creator, 2012 nike nfl pro combat uniforms, those things. For the rest of you, let's take a quick look at the player whom the Bears hope can maintain their approach to the playoffs: Age: 26 Height: 6-foot-2 Weight: 222 pounds How acquired: Signed with the Bears in 2008 as an undrafted rookie from Colorado State, where he started 28 games over four seasons and set the school record for completion percentage (64.2) as a senior. Experience: Has appeared in six games over the past three years. He has thrown 14 regular-season passes, custom football jersey, and he tossed another 20 in a relief appearance during last season's 2010 NFC Championship Game. Playing style: The best way to describe Hanie's game is "wide open." He is quick to leave the pocket and fast enough to make plays when he does it. In parts of 13 career preseason games, Hanie has scrambled 17 times for 92 yards and a touchdown. That style has left him open to turnovers, however. He has committed eight turnovers in those preseason games, nike nfl equipment gloves, including six interceptions. Turning point: Martz demoted him to third string in 2010, usc football jersey, advocating for washed-up veteran Todd Collins to be signed in his place, hockey jersey design, nfl jerseys authentic, and appeared unconvinced on Hanie's candidacy to be the No. 2 quarterback late in the 2011 preseason. While he wouldn't have wished Cutler any harm, he has received a well-timed opportunity to make a case for himself on the free agent market. After always it is the preseason. But here's a rundown of semi-noteworthy happenings from last weekend's preseason action. San Francisco 49ers vs. Indianapolis Colts Quarterback

Curtis Painter (notes) said he wasn't anxious almost being booed forward Colts fans, and next he went out and certified it. He played some of the maximum boo-worthy football you'll ever see even as the preseason. The 49ers' reserves were the heroes of the day with David Carr (notes) going 9-of-11 (!) and rookie running back Anthony Dixon (notes) hitting the 100-yard mark among his debut. Detroit Lions vs. Pittsburgh Steelers Despite being clobbered on the scoreboard and having a ton of penalties, the Lions actually had a lot of positives here. Matthew Stafford was acute Jahvid Best was impressive, and their starting defensive front owned the Steelers starting offensive line. That's an of the reasons -- again being the feasibility that Dennis Dixon (notes) is a better player than Byron Leftwich (notes) -- that Dixon had a strong game and Leftwich struggled. Houston Texans vs. Arizona Cardinals If you wanted to discern the Cardinals crime continue to light it up with Matt Leinart (notes) under hub instead of Kurt Warner (notes), you were probably disappointed here. Leinart played into the second quarter and despite three opportunities, didn't adviser the Cardinals to a point. Andre Johnson and Matt Schaub were surrounded mid-season fashion as the Texans, barely they lost apprentice running back Ben Tate as the season. It's a melancholy and actual thump Larry Fitzgerald (notes) ached a knee, custom football jerseys, also but he's going to be fine. Philadelphia Eagles vs. Jacksonville Jaguars Starting quarterback David Garrard (notes) didn't have a good night, and backup Luke McCown (notes) did, merely this gentleman asks that you don't rush to any "McCown should begin conclusions. Chicago Bears vs. San Diego Chargers In the brief look we got at the first-teamers running Mike Martz's offense in Chicago, there was some occasion as encouragement. Johnny Knox (notes) base some apertures and Jay Cutler (notes) was experienced to beat him. For the Chargers, newcomer runner Ryan Mathews was a respiration of fresh atmosphere along running back. Miami Dolphins vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers Brandon Marshall (notes) had a nipping case of the dropsies in his Dolphins debut. In his defense the early portion of the game was played surrounded a monsoon, merely water does never render football uncatchable. The Dolphins guilt didn't get much else done among the muck Bucs quarterback Josh Freeman, nfl 2012 jerseys, notwithstanding was quite agreeable I find him to be an of the actually interesting players of 2010. Well-paid rookie Gerald McCoy found a way to acquaint an clash. Minnesota Vikings vs. St. Louis Rams The agreeable news as the Rams? Sam Bradford gave a quality performance among his debut. The bad news as the Rams? He did so meantime being battered as whether he was Marc Bulger (notes). I sense that becoming a theme, cheap nfl jerseys, and I wonder whether the Rams would consider quitting Bradford on the bench, impartial so his career isn't shortened forward a savage season-long knocking Sage Rosenfels was large surrounded relief of Tarvaris Jackson (notes), who played just an array as the Vikings, chinese nfl jerseys. I wasn't aware that Tarvaris had progressed to the point where he no longer needs preseason go. Denver Broncos vs. Cincinnati Bengals The Bengals first-team crime was a well-oiled machine, with Carson Palmer (notes) completing 12 of his 15 throws Terrell Owens (notes) was actually his main target, flag football jersey, catching four balls. Chad Ochocinco (notes) only got an In Denver quarterbacking news Kyle Orton was quite solid, customized football jerseys, Brady Quinn (notes) was horrific, and Tim Tebow (notes) was somewhere in-between. Quinn did get the No. two QB snaps, though. Cleveland Browns vs. Green Bay Packers Two shocking things came out of this game: First, the Cleveland Browns got a performance from a quarterback that wasn't frightening Second, Jake Delhomme (notes) played a game of football that didn't depart you concerned nearly his long-term cerebral health. Alertly keeping Browns fans' optimism within retard, nike nfl combat jerseys, though Colt McCoy was ghastly and too ached himself. Aaron Rodgers (notes) was dazzling as the Packers, antagonism the fact that the Browns blitzed the bejeezus out of him. We are concerned about that barricade, however After always Jake Delhomme had a good night. Kansas City Chiefs vs. Atlanta Falcons The await as Todd Haley's combative brilliance to surface continues. The Kansas City guilt very sadly, looked favor it did last daily although Jamaal Charles (notes) and Dexter McCluster (notes) catered some significant glimmers of wish The Falcons barricade looked smart strong, kids football jerseys, maybe mostly as it was playing the Chiefs, and Michael Turner could be primed to wreak of sorts dispose. Buffalo Bills vs. Washington Redskins Remember that whole thing where Albert Haynesworth (notes) was upset almost having to activity a 3-4 barricade No? Neither does Albert Haynesworth, nfl youth jerseys. He played well among finite action, nfl jersey sales, and says he loves the defense swiftly Let me be the first to thank you, Big Al, as always that drama and agitation you produced among what might be the least prolific holdout in NFL history, kids football jersey. As as the Bills, they're still the Bills. Trent Edwards was inconsistent, and either Marshawn Lynch and Fred Jackson went down with injuries. Tennessee Titans vs. Seattle Seahawks Seahawks fans got some confirmation that Charlie Whitehurst might be well worth the price they paid as him. He got a lot of snaps as the Seahawks, and made few missteps. They still couldn't run the ball, though The Titans got some quality activity early aboard from Vince Young, merely then of course there was the stomach-wrenching Stafon Johnson incident. Related: Preseason Nonsense Makes sense. There is no single savior for the franchise because the reasons for the

Running backs Matt Forte and Adrian Peterson are entering the final year of their contracts. We spent a good part of last week discussing the careers of the NFC North's top two tailbacks. We projected what the Minnesota Vikings' Adrian Peterson must do to reach the Pro Football Hall of Fame, hockey jersey numbers, and we debated the merits of Matt Forte's cross-platform talents during three years with the Chicago Bears. Those attributes will come into specific focus in the coming weeks and months. Both Peterson and Forte will report to training camp in the final year of their contracts, new nike nfl, leaving the Vikings and Bears in the tenuous position of placing a value on running backs seeking lucrative second deals. We discussed the issue relative to Peterson last year, and so I won't rehash all of the gory details. But suffice it to say, NFL teams are extraordinarily reluctant to reward running backs who have already absorbed three or four years of pounding, as Forte and Peterson have, nfl football jersey, respectively. Former Packers contract negotiator Andrew Brandt, now an analyst for ESPN and the National Football Post, has referred to the "graveyard" filled with prominent running backs whose careers have broken down after signing a contract extension, from Shaun Alexander to Larry Johnson. Still, for different reasons, wholesale authentic nfl jerseys, it's hard to imagine either team moving forward over the next few years without their top runner. We'll start with Forte, whose situation is a bit more straightforward than Peterson's. The Bears have managed to cut back Forte's workload significantly since he took a whopping 316 carries as a rookie in 2008, nfl uniforms 2012, 2012 nike nfl pro combat uniforms, lowering it to 258 carries in 2009 and 237 last year. As a second-round draft pick, nfl youth jersey, Forte's rookie contract made him by nature one of the best bargains in the NFL over that time. He is scheduled to earn $555, nfl personalized jersey, 000 this year on a four-year deal that originally included $1.533 million guaranteed. Forte hasn't missed a start in three years and isn't looking to break the bank. He recently told Vaughn McClure of the Chicago Tribune that he is hoping the team throws him a bone and nothing more. The Bears have some $33 million in salary-cap space available, authentic football jersey, and it is entirely reasonable to predict Forte will get an extension by the end of the year. In an important way, however, Forte's career path provides the perfect argument for diverting cash and salary-cap space to another position. You remember the situation when the Bears drafted Forte in 2008, don't you? The Bears had bid farewell to 2006 starter Thomas Jones, oregon ducks authentic football jersey, who at the time was 28, hockey jersey maker, and then waived Cedric Benson prior to training camp. Forte was well-regarded before and after the draft, but the Bears were able to plug him in as an immediate starter and didn't miss a beat. Was that because Forte was special? Or is it reasonable to think the Bears could repeat that scenario? Should the Bears consider allowing Forte to play out his final season, presumably exhausting his best years as an NFL player, and then draft a younger replacement in 2012? Take a look at the two charts, the first of which accompanied last year's post on this topic. In 2009, eight of the NFL's top 10 leading rushers were 27 years old or younger. Last season, the dynamic was even more pronounced: All 10 were 28 years old or younger, college football jersey, and all but two were playing on their original contracts.

Forte will turn 26 in December. Peterson, meanwhile, nfl jersey cheap, just turned 26 and already has nearly 1,300 carries logged on his body when you add playoff games to his official statistics. Performance bonuses have lifted his 2011 salary to a whopping $10.72 million for 2011, a figure that more than adequately pays him for elite services this season. In many ways, the smart business approach would be to let Peterson play out the year at his eight-figure salary and then evaluate his health and long-term prognosis after the season. Moving forward, blank football jersey, football jersey size chart, the franchi can't reach an agreement with the player. On the other hand,colorado rockies hockey jersey,authentic nfl jersey,canadian hockey jerseys, Peterson counts more than $12 million against the Vikings' salary cap at the moment,nike nfl uniform, and an extension would help bring down that figure. New coach Leslie Frazier is already on record saying he wants to build his offense around Peterson. That amounts to a verbal vote of confidence,chinese nfl jerseys,blank football jersey, if not financial. One way or the other, the Vikings and Bears will have to address these issues. My guess is that both Peterson and Forte will be back with their respective teams in 2012, be it through long-term extensions or franchise tags. But it's not a simple decision for either team, and it's complicated by the long-established trend of high-impact running backs fading in their late 20's. Stay tuned.
